

LUXE[®] 6700x

Extraordinary Design + Engineering. Exceptional Service.

THE X FACTOR

The Luxe 6700x delivers reliable performance in a sleek countertop design. Built on a secure Linux platform, it supports every major payment type: EMV, magnetic stripe, and contactless options like Apple Pay, Samsung Pay, and Google Pay. Choose the connectivity that fits your environment, from wired Ethernet and USB to wireless LAN (WLAN) that supports 2.4 GHz & 5 GHz.

With proven durability, advanced security, and simple remote management, the Luxe 6700x is designed to keep payments running smoothly, day after day.

LUXE® 6700x

EXTRAORDINARY DESIGN

The crystal-clear display and intuitive interface of the Luxe 6700x engage customers and enhance the check-out experience.

- Brilliant 3.5" high-definition LCD touch display delivers vivid clarity in any lighting environment
- Compact, ergonomic design fits comfortably in hand or mounts neatly on a countertop
- Under-display contactless reader enables quick, seamless tap-to-pay interactions
- Angled, illuminated chip card slot and tactile backlit keypad ensure intuitive use and fewer keying errors
- Multi-sensory technology with sound and animation reinforces successful transactions

EXTRAORDINARY ENGINEERING

The Luxe 6700x combines compact design with exceptional durability to withstand the test of time. Every element—form, components, materials, architecture, security, and software—is precisely engineered to optimize payment acceptance.

- Chemically strengthened glass lens protects the display from scratches and dents
- Durable, in-mold decorated plastic keytops can't be snapped off and won't fade over time
- Highly reliable, compact architecture engineered to perform in demanding retail environments
- Stringent security features, including PCI PTS 6.x certification and PCI P2PE v3.1 Domains 1 & 5 validation, protect card data and simplify PCI compliance

IT PAYS TO WORK WITH US. EXPERIENCED PEOPLE, EXCEPTIONAL SUPPORT.

The Luxe 6700x is backed by our knowledgeable payment professionals who are dedicated to forging long-term, mutually successful relationships with partners and customers. We have built a culture of taking ownership and going above and beyond at every opportunity.
